THE "JACOBAN ROOM" FROM THE ST PETERSBURG MUSEUM OF ART: Stained glass, fireplace. The installation encompassed a 350 sq ft area at the MFA. Floor and ceiling not included in this lot. In its present state has been reconfigured w/ new doorways and windows. Now considered to be mainly 19th Century, it should not be considered an historic, intact interior, but instead a charming and evocative room.

80+ Pc Collection of Russian Silver including Faberge

The entire Georgian Room with fireplace, mantle and paneling from the installation at the St Petersburg Museum of Art. The room surrounded a 560 sq ft area. Once housed in the Schenley World headquarters in the Empire State Building NYC. As the room has undergone many changes over the years, it should not be considered intact nor historically authentic.
